

By Council Members Lander, Adams, Reynoso and Ayala

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the rehire of workers laid off as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraphs (g) and (h) of paragraph 3 of subdivision a of section 20-1208 of
2 the administrative code of the city of New York are amended, and a new subparagraph (i) is added
3 to such paragraph, to read as follows:

4 (g) Subdivisions a and b of section 20-1252, $300; [and]

5 (h) Subdivision a or b of section 20-1262, $500 and an order directing compliance with 6 such subdivision, provided, however, that an employer who fails to provide an employee with the 7 written response required by subdivision a of section 20-1262 may cure the violation without a
8 penalty being imposed by presenting proof to the satisfaction of the office that it provided the 9 employee with the required written response within seven days of the office notifying the employer
10 of the opportunity to cure[.]; and

11 (i) Section 20-1272, an order directing compliance with such section and directing the 12 rehire of any employee aggrieved by a violation of section 20-1272.

13 § 2. Subdivision a of section 20-1211 of the administrative code of the city of New York,
14 as added by local law number 107 for the year 2017, is amended to read as follows:

15 a. Claims. Any person, including any organization, alleging a violation of the following
16 provisions of this chapter may bring a civil action, in accordance with applicable law, in any court
17 of competent jurisdiction:

18 1. Section 20-1204;

19 2. Section 20-1221;

1 Covered employer. The term “covered employer” means an employer that earned gross
2 receipts in 2019 exceeding $5,000,000.

3 Covered position. The term “covered position” means any position at a covered employer
4 that is not classified as managerial, supervisory or confidential, or otherwise exercise control over
5 the management of the covered employer.

6 Laid-off worker. The term “laid-off worker” means any worker who was employed by a
7 covered employer in a covered position for six months or more and whose most recent separation
8 from active employment by the covered employer occurred on or after March 12, 2020, and 9 resulted from a lack of business, a reduction in workforce or other economic, non-disciplinary 10 reason related to the COVID-19 pandemic. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any 11 termination occurring on or after March 12, 2020, was due to a non-disciplinary reason.

12 Person. The term “person” means any individual, proprietorship, partnership, joint venture,
13 corporation, limited liability company, trust, association, a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver, or 14 other entity that may employ persons or enter into service contracts.

15 Successor business. The term “successor employer” means a covered employer who owns,
16 controls, or operates a covered employer after a change in control or change in controlling interest
17 or identity of the covered employer or of a discrete portion of the covered employer that continues
18 to operate as a covered employer after such change.

19 Worker. The term “worker” means any employee at a covered employer who does not act 20 as a manager, supervisor or confidential employee, or who otherwise exercise control over the 21 management of the covered employer.

22 § 20-1272 Rehire required. a. Before a covered or successor employer may hire for a
23 covered position that is or becomes available after the effective date of this subchapter, the covered

1 or successor employer shall first offer such covered position to every laid-off worker who is
2 qualified for the covered position. Such offer shall be made in writing to the laid-off worker's last 3 known address.

4 b. A laid off worker is qualified and must be offered a covered position when:

5 1. The same or similar covered position as the laid-off worker held before the most recent 6 separation from active service, at the same site of employment, becomes available for hiring; or

7 2. A new covered position is created, for which the laid-off worker is qualified after 8 receiving the same training that would be provided to a new worker hired into that covered 9 position.

10 c. A covered or successor employer shall offer a covered position first to the laid-off worker
11 with the greatest length of service with the covered employer at the employment site.

12 d. A laid-off worker who is offered a covered position pursuant to this subchapter shall be
13 given no less than 10 days after the receipt of the written notice at the laid-off worker's last known
14 address to accept or decline the offer. A covered employer or successor employer shall retain 15 written verification of each offer of employment made pursuant to this section for no less than 16 three years from the date the offer is made. Such verification shall include the name, address, date
17 of hire, and job classification of the eligible worker to whom the offer was made.

18 § 20-1273 Collective bargaining agreements. The provisions of this subchapter do not 19 apply to any laid-off worker covered by a valid collective bargaining agreement, including an 20 agreement that is open for renegotiation, if (i) such provisions are expressly waived in the 21 collective bargaining agreement and (ii) the collective bargaining agreement addresses rehiring of 22 workers.

1 § 20-1274 No waiver of rights. Except for a collective bargaining agreement provision
2 made pursuant to section 20-1273, any waiver by a worker of any provision of this subchapter
3 shall be void as against public policy.

4 § 4. This local law takes effect 60 days after it becomes law.

IS/LCB
LS #14851
03/11/2021